Abbey, even distills its own rum.

into the past. When the British arrived on the island, Barbados is steeped in history and spotted with Step Back in Time at a Stately Plantation Home.

their contribution to Barbadian society. Destroyed by a hurricane in 1831 but has since been restored.

Stop by the Bridgetown Jewish Synagogue, a World Heritage site, to learn more about the island's Jewish history. Or stop by the Barbados Museum, a UNESCO-listed site, which is a restored 18th-century building in Bridgetown.

The museum features exhibits on Barbados' history, culture, and the island's role in the Atlantic slave trade.

First, start with a spot of tea, then dress in your best whites to watch a game of cricket with the locals. Catch a Sporting Event on Barbados, which is a popular activity for both locals and tourists.

What improvements has Divi Little Bay made since your last visit? Divi Little Bay has made several improvements to enhance the guest experience. If you've met Anne-Marie Brooks, you know that she is the driving force behind this top Divi destination. But what do you know about her? We caught up with Anne-Marie to discover why she's so special to her.

We asked Anne-Marie about her role at Divi Little Bay and what she enjoys most about the island. She shared that the resort and island are so special to her. "What do you enjoy most about the island?"

"I love taking care of people, and I take great personal pride in making my guests happy," she said. She also mentioned that she has a passion for animals and has done a lot of work to help them. "They at the resort and finding homes for all. Dogs spayed or neutered, continuing to look after them.

Staff and management took matters into their own hands, sponsoring trips to the vet to get the dogs spayed or neutered. The resort has also sponsored the Spay Day program, which involves taking dogs to the vet for their annual check-ups and vaccinations.

HOMES FOR DOGS

A home is heaven for all, and that is why Divi Little Bay has sponsored a local children's book about sustainability. Sip on hot tea while enjoying the fresh flavors of the Rainbow Potatoes and Rainbow Carrots. Enjoy this armchair vacation and stay safe and healthy!

What do you enjoy most about the island?"